Letter from the CEO

From the beginning, we established Emocosmética as a high quality brand in the High Natural Cosmetics market. All our efforts have been aimed at offering 100% natural products that are sensitive and effective for the health of our skin.

To do this this, we direct our energies toward the research of new active principles that effectively reverberate to benefit our health.

Today, we are pioneers and innovators in Emotional Cosmetics; a cosmetic that helps not only our bodies, but also affects our mood by supporting its integral balance.

There are many ancestral and universal tendencies that describe a persistent emotional unbalance. When left untreated and unsolved, it can lead to a physical ailment.

For example, we know that stressful or toxic environments generate physical ailments such as muscle contraction, hypertension, a depressed immune system, fever, and even high cholesterol.

Our development team, headed by Fatim Ligioiz - Chief of R&D and Quality - has a clear objective that makes their work an incessant alchemical quest: the elixir of eternal happiness.

This is our ultimate goal. We do not seek eternal youth, but instead seek eternal happiness to possess a healthy self-esteem giving us courage that helps us securely face daily challenges, a good state of health, and a balanced emotional state - essential ingredients to look at ourselves in the mirror and see ourselves as more beautiful, alive and healthier.

The team of Emocosmética professionals are aiding in the creation of the cosmetic gems of the extensive phytotherapy that exists throughout the planet.

Among them is neurophytotherapy that nourishes our treasures, natural essences that directly affect our brain processes, and helping us in the deficiencies or deteriorations generated over the years.

Emocosmética feed on natural nootropics, which are enzymes, amino acids, vitamins, and active ingredients which the latest research recognizes as intelligent substances — high power nutraceuticals or mental and cognitive enhancers.

Another fundamental aspect for the care of physical, emotional, and mental health are Nutricosmetic products. In this matter, we mark the Regénesis products for their innovation and effectiveness. We use the latest research to deliver a clinically endorsed genuine product with powerful effects on the body. We understand emotional Nutricosmetics as a way to support the generation of greater and better changes in our integral health.

This is our mission: to respond to a community of men and women with concerns who are seeking high quality products that are natural and effective without harmful and irresponsible chemistry. For people who do not want to be young in a lasting manner, but rather eternally happy. Our cosmetic gems are for them.

Manu Herrera
Chief Executive Officer

Excellence is only achieved with Good Professionals committed to a common goal

To speak of Emocosmética is to live High Quality Cosmetics from a new perspective that integrates care of the body and mind. It's a pioneer brand in cosmetics based on the use of active ingredients of maximum purity in a perfect synergy between nature, development, quality, and ancestral philosophies that focuses on balancing the emotional world of its customers to achieve that beautiful vital state which is harmony, calm and happiness.

Our cosmetic gems are exclusive formulas nourished mainly from old holistic medicines and natural therapies that complement the effectiveness of its active ingredients. With all this, we obtain an integral cosmetic capable of taking an evolutionary step in the care of our physical and emotional beauty.

Emocosmética was created with the purpose of providing a service that covers an unsatisfied need in the professional cosmetics market. It consists of creating a unique experience for our clients with an innovative and differential proposal that manages to balance and improve both the skin and emotional state. We aim to meet this need in a serious, coherent, professional, scientific, and responsible manner.

The Emocosmética Team is comprised of active professionals of recognized international prestige which include: Doctors, Nurses, Oriental Medicine Therapists, Kinesiologists, Natural Cosmetic Expert Formulators, Aesthetic Professionals, Neuroscience/Behavioral Neurobiology Specialists, Emotional Intelligence Experts, Vibrational Therapists, Counselors, Human Resource Trainers, and many more.

All of them combine their knowledge on a daily basis to create different lines of cosmetic products aimed at obtaining fast and effective results both in the physical and emotional field. If these products are placed in the hands of professionals in the sector working with Emocosmética, customers feel widely protected and exceed the expectations of prior investments in conventional cosmetics and cosmetic services.

Emocosmética is a permanent research center that offers professionals of the sector unique cosmetics of the highest quality which are elaborated with magisterial formulas that incorporate a great number of active ingredients in high concentrations. This is aimed to care for the body and the mind by contributing balance and well-being under a prism of holistic care.

Why the Cosmetic Gems function

These are our foundations: All the blend of what we are today and the wisdom that from the beginning of time has been reflected in previous civilizations. Furthermore, the natural active ingredients in delicate compositions where chemistry and technological advances are joined in harmony with the natural world.

There are many factors involved in making a cosmetic preparation effective and fulfilling in its function:

1.- Universal Synergy

Medicine is not understood the same in all parts of the world. The neuroscientific advances of western medicine, traditional Chinese medicine and its manner of understanding human behavior, or the ancient Tibetan treaties or Ayurveda...make up a rosary of ways to understand health. In Emocosmética, we research the remedies of all cultures to achieve the desired alchemy: our cosmetics.

2.- Quality and Quantity in the Chosen Active Ingredients

Our commitment is the pursuit of quality because it guarantees efficiency and excellence thanks to its principles of maximum purity. The quantity of active ingredients in a cosmetic is equally crucial. We count on the honesty of our preparations which is why they work.

3.- Integral Phytotherapy

We unite distillation and essential oils of any part of the planet with the most novel discoveries of our phytotherapy. We emphasize neurophytotherapy like natural nootropics — powerful substances that have the capacity to help us improve our mental, physical, and emotional performance without producing any type of negative side effect.

4.- Used Chemistry

There are chemical processes that do not alter quality or cause harm to health. However, there are other chemistry that we know to be harmful and affects us negatively like surfactants, preservatives, colorants, emollients, and other additives. They are included to make the product more "attractive" but can cause us great harm. Silicones, petroleum derivatives, paraffins, pigments that affect the liver, parabens, and other preservatives of dubious reputation expand the list. Our commitment is clear stating that all of our formulas can be certified by high-quality and reputable labels such as Ecocert and others.

5.- Perfume and Differentials of the Formula

The perfume in our cosmetics has a great therapeutic and emotional value. This is born from combining modern with traditional aromatherapy. It is a synergy of aromatherapeutic, alchemical, archetypal, vibrational, and shamanic essences.

6.- Complementary Therapies

We believe that all forms of understanding health are valid and complementary. Therefore, our products and treatments include Bach flowers, chromotherapy, music therapy, and brain waves among others to optimize the desired results.

Below are details of some of the natural therapies involved in Emocosmética Products and Treatments:

6A.- Bach Flowers

Distillations or tinctures of plants that Dr. Bach developed and used as treatment. He understood that disease was in the emotions of the person and not in their physical body, and that spiritual, psychological, or emotional imbalance is the origin of physical maladjustments that lead to illness. Well known floral essences thus were developed in this manner.

6B.- Color Therapy

We attempt to be present in both our packaging and in the cabins where our treatments are developed.

It is a method of light treatment that includes various techniques involving the utilization of the colors in which the solar spectrum is divided with the aim of improving and increasing our integral health. Although, due to ignorance in the west, it is usually considered to be a novel practice which is exactly what our hospitals use to treat different pathologies. We treat through the application of color, as is done with neonatal hyperbilirubinemia (jaundice) which is treated by exposing babies to blue light.

In fact, other studies have demonstrated that sunlight stimulates the pineal gland to produce melatonin which is necessary for sleep, a sense of well-being, and happiness.

In addition to intervening in hormonal and enzymatic interactions, some colors can already make the body's enzymes five hundred times more effective. Furthermore, we now know that different spectra of light, as in different colors, are also influencing other basic biological functions such as circulation, digestion, etc...

6C.- Music Therapy

Current studies show that listening to music is good for the heart. The Principle of Resonance dictates that a weak body mimics the strongest and most stable vibration of a second body thus keeping pace with each other. This causes the arrhythmic or accelerated heart to relax according to the rhythms of the melody.

Simply put, we could say that we all know the relaxing values of classical music or the sedating and relieving value of music with sounds of water. At Emocosmética, we also help ourselves with this powerful tool to optimize our desired results.

6D.- Brain Waves

We went into the latest research in the field of neuroscience to explore brain waves.

The brain's neurons communicate among each other with electrical impulses. These are different depending on which brain areas they are working on and what type of work they do between them. Depending on the frequency of the wave we are producing, the wave receives different names such as alpha, beta, gamma, zeta waves, etc...

What do Brain Wave CDs achieve? Our brain's generation of specific waves related to different states of health, as in exercise, to train and re-educate our brain to generate naturally and innocuously, the mental state we want to enhance our lives.

This is achieved by the same Principle of Resonance by which a more intense and harmonic vibration affects a weaker or dissonant vibration.

Therefore, in the Emocosmética treatment sessions, we will not only work the skin, but we will help to re-educate the brain to activate it in a way that provides us with greater mental agility, greater relaxation, wit, memory, and ultimate youth. After several sessions, the waves will be readjusted to what they once were and generate healthy, awakened, and creative frequencies.

The World of Emotions

Most of us currently do not know our body unless we have a profession related to health. We live with it without knowing its basic operation. We know that we have skeletal, muscular, nervous, and digestive systems. What about the relationship between them?

What energy moves us? And as far as the main theme for Emocosmética: Emotions, how, where, and why do we feel them? What is the interdependence between emotions and the body? How do emotions affect our health and how does health affect our beauty?

Burdened back, cervical pinch, weight gain or loss, premature aging or atopic skin are some of the symptoms recognized as a consequence of difficult stages or stressful situations. However, we know nothing of the subtlety with which the interrelation of the body, mind, and emotions operate, and the ingenuity with which they merge to make our whole being one.

Therefore, it is vital that our professional centers start to help our customers get to know each other better both physiologically and emotionally. We need to help them enter, understand, perceive, stimulate, and love their bodies. Let's help our clients make their bodies a safe and comfortable place to spend the rest of their lives in!

We all invest time, effort, and resources to take care of our beauty. Now, with the same gesture as always, we can gain an incalculable value. We can beautify our emotional state without increasing our efforts. Is there any reason to deprive ourselves of that?

Emocosmética

How do our cosmetics act in the Emotions?

Many people wonder how Cosmetics can affect one's emotional state.

The first thing we need to have in mind is that in our world, there are many different ways of understanding both health and the absence of it.

From our western medicine and pharmacopeia, sometimes it's hard for us to realize the other ways of understanding health. However, that doesn't mean those other concepts aren't effective. For millennia, we've cured ourselves using remedies derived from plants or animals all across the world. In Africa and Asia, 80% of the population still uses these kinds of traditional remedies thus making their longevity greater than that of the west.

It can be difficult for us to understand how in Northern India or Nepal, the exiled people of Tibet are capable of keeping themselves healthy through reiterative mantras by vibrating an earthenware bowl. Furthermore, how in traditional Chinese medicine the body is divided into energy channels that through acupuncture, balances the body and the mind.

This without a doubt makes us consider that health and sickness are broader and more holistic than we had originally thought.

If we take into account the different forms of understanding the world's medicine, we'll discover that there are hundreds of active principles that are being used as well as many therapies and surprising techniques that help the general equilibrium of our body and the integral equilibrium of our state of mind.

Therefore, Emocosmética's job is to put all of this information together and make it available to everyone.

Current studies show that positive emotions must be developed like sense of humor, self-esteem, calmness, and resilience - resistance to emotional pain. This helps avoid the effects that trigger emotional negativity formed by anger, anxiety, and depression that together with stress, predispose us to a multifunctional organismal maladjustment provoking illnesses and other health disorders that manifest themselves physically.

To get these positive emotions, a person must willingly acquire learned emotional abilities. In order to help themselves in the process making the journey easier, we put a positive influence on vegetables, minerals, and plants. From these and other nutrients, we nourish here at Emocosmética to support what allows us to go on our desired journey to seek internal balance in a positive way.

Currently, no one argues the penetrability that cosmetics have on our body that through various natural methods, can reach our blood stream and spread throughout our bodies bringing their benefits with them.

The rigorousness of our formulas and the wide variety of techniques that we bring together to generate this world of sensory experiences are the main weapons that we use in this competitive market.

Along with a natural formula and the responsible use of products oriented to improve our beauty, Emocosmética utilizes the bringing together of many focused practices and diverse ways of thinking that incorporate therapies based on the application of plants, manual techniques, applied exercises, most recent investigations, and ancient therapies. All of these practices are ways to better the Emotional Equilibrium. This grand spectrum of action optimizes the work that our professionals have developed in their beauty and well-being centers.

Everyone who goes to an Esthetic Center does so because they're in a situation in which they require therapy. We are wrong to think that taking care of exterior beauty is a minor issue. People want to be beautiful because they want to be healthy. In short, people want to be happy. In this aspect, Beauty and Health Centers can now give a solution to this need that requires such broad and complete work. Any of the products that Emocosmética incorporates contains in its formula shamanic, alchemical, archetypal, Mediterranean, and Bach Flowers. It also has remedies that stem from traditional medicines of China, India, Korea, and Japan. It is a cocktail of ancient wisdom that is woven together with the most recent research and the latest trends such as nootropic substances. These compounds are popular among the most brilliant minds in the Silicon Valley (San Francisco). Among its most important values, Emocosmética only incorporates the use of 100% natural origin products.

We reinforce professional work with beauty treatments that incorporate a variety of techniques such as reflexology and equilibrium of the body's reflective areas. We also work with energetic medians, kinesiology, acupressure, hydrotherapy, light therapy, emotional intelligence, the use of floral essences and essential oils, the consumption of specialized nutricosmetics, the harmonization of subtle bodies through manipulations, massages, and the application of determined plant essences.

After looking at all of these factors, it's easy to understand that in less than a year, Emocosmética has become one of the most chosen and valued brands in the professional settings of the aesthetics world that we can find in our country's most prestigious centers.

We are a new concept of beauty and combining the best of science, nature, and ancestral medicines with the clear goal of preserving health throughout its broad spectrum.

Our Commitment

Natural Cosmetics

The Personal Care products are manufactured with about 10,500 different chemicals, some of which are hormonal contaminants or endocrine disruptors which prevent the correct functioning of our hormones.

According to the breast cancer prevention association; Breast Cancer UK, by mimicking the functioning of estrogen, these pollutants can stimulate the growth of damaged cells and increase mutations that generate breast cancer.

In addition, numerous scientific investigations indicate them as possible causes of other damages in health such as infertility, autism, diabetes, and obesity.

A good number of active ingredients should appear in your cosmetics, which are all of the components directly responsible for its main function.

One way or another, the cosmetic products are what carry out the function for which it has been designed and manufactured to do. In short, your cosmetics will help you project more beauty and health the more active ingredients it harbors.

Therefore, we invite you to look again at the INCI or list of ingredients of each of your cosmetics and primarily use those that have the most active ingredients without the above substances among their benefits hindering all the efforts you've made so far.

Our Cosmetic Jewelry does not contain:

Parabens: They are used as preservatives because of their effectiveness and their low prices. However, medical researches proved that parabens can be harmful for health as parabens traces have been founded in breast tumours in mid 2011. In many countries the use of parabens has been banned for children under 3, as for example in Denmark. Because of the controversy, the European Union has regulated their use. The allowed parabens quantities are 0,8%, and 0,4% for those products which contains esters.

If you put together all the cosmetics you used that contain parabens, Are you sure your body is not receiving an alarming amount of these components?

The most frequent are: methylparaben, ethylparaben, propylparaben, butylparaben, isobutylparaben, benzylparaben e isopropylparaben.

Phthalates: It is a chemical compound, which contain long-lasting petroleum, mainly used as plasticiser (substances added to plastics to increase their flexibility). In cosmetics it is used as a solvent. Some of them have been banned in Europe, due to some human researches suggest they were potential causes of osseous decalcification, asthma, infertility or even breast cancer. Spain is suffering of a "general and continuous exposition to ftalatos" as it is pointed by the European biovigilance Program Democophes.

The most frequent are: dietilhexiloftalato, dibutilftalato, butilbenzilftalato, diisonilftalato, diisodeciloftalato or dinocilftalato.

SLS Detergents: it is a surfactant used to create desirable foam and the softness in the gels. On the other hand it could dry the skin or hair, it can provoke allergic reaction, it is irritating and it can help to hair loss. But the most worrying issue is the possibility of a mutant cell activity.

Key words to identify SLS Detergents: Sodium Laureth Sulfate, Sodium Lauryl Sulfate, Sodium Lauryl Sulfoacetate (SLS), Amonium Lauryl Sulfate o Disodium Laureth Sulfosuccinate.

PEG Emulsifier: Petroleum derivatives. Some extremely toxic gasses take part during its production, so it can contain toxic residues (dioxins).

Key words to identify PEG emulsifier: PEG, PPG, Polyethylene, Cetareth, ceteth, hydroxypropyl or the ending "ETH".

Formaldehyde: It is used as a preservative. Recently there are several studies which show the damage it can cause to our health. It can cause contact dermatitis as it is very irritating. Sometimes and in long exposures it can cause eczemas and deep cankers in the skin. The World Health Organisation (WHO) includes it

Seeking Excellence in Your Cosmetics

The efforts that you perform daily will bring you great benefits.

Why not choose the cosmetic that takes care of you in a responsible way both inside and out? Why not embellish your body and soul in a single gesture? It is now possible thanks to Emocosmética, a brand committed to your happiness and personal success.

Because we know that it is possible to respond to your needs, we will wait for you on our website where you can find courses, training, presentations, publications, and cosmetics aimed not just at the goal of beauty and health, but rather the path to your Happiness.

Our Commitment

Our commitment is clear. We have a double scale in our cosmetics production. We only used ingredients that have been certificated by two of the most strong standing European Institution in Natural Cosmetics.

The Institute for the Advancement of Skin in Germany. Its aim is the skin health, approving the seal of quality International quality seals "ingredients tested". The ingredients we use and our products pass this test.

At the same time our Production Labs apply the manufacturing regulations and we use ingredients that are permitted by Ecocert, a French organisation with natural and ecological certification.

The double scale let us acquire a 100% of our products being certifiable with those seal of quality and the guarantee that all our products are natural and free of compounds.

Ecocosmética
does not test in animals

as one of the potential cancer-causing elements.

Some Key words to identify Formaldehyde are: Diazolidinyl Urea, Imidazolidinyl Urea o Polyoxymethylene Urea. (Nothing to do with the Urea). It can also be found as Another harmful compound is diethanolamine (DEA, MEA, TEA) which is a chemical highly problematic compound. Several studies show it clearly increases the liver and kidney cancer patients.

Petroleum Derivatives and Paraffins: they are hydrocarbon derived from petroleum, which are extremely cost-effective. They are used to create a waterproof surface in the skin which gives a softness and smoothness appearance to it. They are paraffinum, paraffinum liquidum, petroleum. In a California University study it is said the inhale of these gasses cause cancer.

Silicones Derivatives: silicone quaternium, silicone methylsilanol. They are used due to their low prices and the turgor and not oily feeling it gives to the skin. Although it has not been proved it causes cancer, silicones derivatives have been found in lymph and liver nodes.

Butylhydroxytoluene or BHT: it is a synthetic antioxidant. It has been demonstrated it can change some substances activity into cancer-causing. It has been observed in rats experiments that high dose levels of this substance affect to reproductive activity and to the number of pups and their growth.

Oxybenzone, Benzophenone, Methoxydibenzoylmethane, or Dibenzoylmethane, are sun filters which have been demonstrated to be cancer-causing. Besides it can cause successive skin allergies.

If we take a look at the cosmetics we use, we will find out the paradox that some of them are composed of ingredients that instead of being beneficial to our body, fulfilling the aim for which we use them, they can be highly damaging.

Many of these ingredients have created a wide debate, since several studies have determined that they can cause serious damage to our health. If we were aware that cosmetics do not remain in the uppermost layer of the skin but are absorbed into the cells and bloodstream, we would understand the importance of carefully analysing the selection of our cosmetics.

There are substances classified by many global organizations as carcinogenic, irritating, toxic or banned in some countries while we can still find other on cosmetic labels, including prestigious brands ones.

Emotherapy and Product Lines

All of our product lines are made up of a wide variety of cosmetics whose elaborate and particular formulation make it a true treasure for the skin and the soul.

Our perfume lines are created with up to one hundred essential oils of incalculable therapeutic value that are being used to achieve this desired effects. They offer personalized results, are sensual, inspiring, and profoundly transformative.

Their valuable, prestigious, original, and sophisticated active principles come together in perfect synergy to create natural cosmetics that from the first day of use, surprisingly function because of their clear and visible enduring effects.

"Our goal is to bring the virtues of nature to you and allow them to enter the temple of your soul so from that perfect symbiosis and balance, the most magical thing is created which is your happiness."

Four solutions for your state of mind and your emotional needs:

To Achieve Greater Happiness

Happiness is an emotional state that is conquered, educated, and empowered. To achieve this, it's essential to feel vitality, be able to look at positive day-to-day situations with bravery, and to confront all challenges that life sends our way. Having a good mirror through which to see ourselves in helps strengthen our vulnerable self-esteem. Happiness is nurtured from many ingredients and is made day by day.

Vitality and Optimism Line
Courage and Self-Assurance Line
Self-Esteem and Autonomy Line

To Enjoy Your Relaxation To The Fullest

We need to relax the mind and the spirit. Our body is the only place we live in and we often forget how to take care of it as we should. Stress, burden of responsibilities, and worries push us away from the calm and inner peace that we need to take the reins of our lives.

Tranquility and Calmness Line
Inner Peace and Meditation Line

To Reach A Desired State Of Equilibrium

Our integral balance is the greatest treasure of all times. It's an inner compass that guides us with certainty over uncertainty. In coveted balance, changes and the best options are born and conceptual frontiers are renewed. These ingredients solve imbalances and provide a stable state of global connection between the body and mind.

Integral Balance Line - Silken Skin
Integral Balance Line - Suncare
Integral Balance Line - Body Shaping

To Strengthen Your Mental Capacity

We know very little about our inner capacities. However, we do know that prosperity is an emotional state and a way of lining emotions which are true engines of action. We know that a state of creative awareness is made up of neurochemical conjugations that line up to achieve the genius we carry inside. We know that there is restful sleep however revealing sleep also exists. We believe in magic as an ability to make the impossible possible.

Prosperity and Success Line
Magic and Intuition Line

Vitality is the spark that generates a life full of small daily miracles.

Bella Osadía

Anti-Free Radical Nutritive Facial Cream

This is specially designed for demineralized, dull, malnourished, and aged skin. It provides protection against the factors of premature aging and empowers a state of confidence and courage.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVE INGREDIENTS

Organic Tomatoes, Macadamia, Galbanum, Neroli, Ricino, Lavender, Olives and Almonds, Soy Esters, Vitamins, Phytosqualene, and Antioxidants.

The Bella Osadía (Beautiful Audacity) Anti-Free Radical Nutritive Facial Cream contains organic tomatoes, essential oils from macadamia galbanum, neroli, castor, lavender, olives, almonds, soy sterols, vitamins, squalene, and antioxidants.

We emphasize Tomatoes which contain lycopene and is one of the most powerful antioxidants found in nature. That's why they are said to have anti-carcinogenic effects. Additionally, tomatoes are rich in trace elements and vitamins that nourish skin and protect it against premature aging and the appearance of wrinkles.

In the field of cosmetics, lycopene, because of its high cellular antioxidant activity, is used as sunscreen to block UV rays and maintain skin's longevity and freshness. Tomatoes also stimulate skin cell regeneration which bring luminosity and the appearance of younger looking skin after only a few weeks of use.

Lavender is one of the most well-known and used medicinal plants dating back to antiquity due to its analgesic, antiseptic, relaxing, healing, soothing, anti-rheumatic effects, and its ability to stimulate blood circulation and skin regeneration.

Lavender also contains a compound called linalool which has great therapeutic value combating infections (caused by bacteria, fungi, parasites and viruses) especially pediatric infections. It also has proven anxiolytic, neurotonic, and regenerative properties.

Recent studies have revealed new properties such as Linalool which exerts a local antispasmodic and anesthetic action, thus making it a painkiller. It is anticonvulsant (calms tremors), sedative, hypnotic, lengthens sleep duration, regulates mood, and boosts the immune system to the point of achieving an autonomously regenerating organism. It's also a hypotensive and has anti-inflammatory properties.

Olive oil is one of the best moisturizers that we can apply on our skin. This liquid gold of Andalusia when applied on damaged or dry skin, helps skin regeneration, regulating skin tone, and homogenizing the outermost layer of the skin. It is recommended as a regenerative treatment for small scars and wounds.

Galbanum oil prevents and eliminates acne and corrects expression marks as well as small wrinkles. It's recommended for atopic dermatitis, suffocating, itching, and diminishing redness and inflammation. It covers several emotional symptoms such as relieving states of nervous anxiety, fear, and tension. This oil from Syria is associated with reconciliation with us and others. It's used to stimulate chakras and their penetration of natural cycles, increases a sense of security, and helps us to accept ourselves.

In short, The Bella Osadía Anti-Free Radical Nutritive Facial Cream thanks to these active principles combined with the many that you can see from its ingredients, is a cosmetic designed to beautify our skin and our emotions by freeing us from tensions, fears, anguishes, and blockages that make it difficult to see ourselves with all our splendor and potential.

All the wonderful things in the world have been achieved thanks to people who dared to believe that something within them was more powerful than their own circumstances and fears.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVE INGREDIENTS

Mother-of-pearl, Biological African Star Rhizome, Biological Tara, Phytic and Citric Acids, Biological Argan Oil, Biological Essential Oils of Pink Rose and Wild Rose, Biological Aloe Vera, Marine Algae, Biological Marigold, Biological Ruscus, Sandalwood, Natural Glycerin, and Maltodextrin.

It is considered to be the only skin whitener that works by regenerating skin from the inside by achieving a deep and permanent exfoliation. It contains six trace elements and eleven amino acids very similar to those of the skin which accelerate their regeneration and achieves an increased moisture absorption of up to 99%.

We highlight the African Star Rhizome and Tara, a modern and exclusive formula of organic origin with a powerful action that manages to effectively clarify skin giving it a clear and radiant tone and reducing visible spots whether related to age, discoloration, freckles, or other skin pigmentation disorders.

In addition to these unquestionable active principles, the Piel de Ángel (Angel Skin) Unifying Facial Cream features aloe vera, phytic acid, glycerin, maltodextrin, argan, wild rose, rose hip, sandalwood, rusco, marigold, seaweed, and citric acid.

The field of Bach Flower Therapy contains Aloe Vera which treats rapid wear, regenerates strength, and cleanses physically, mentally, and spiritually. It also contains Wild Rose, indicated in cases of apathy or lack of motivation, to give way to states of greater vitality, strength, and personal success.

In the field of alchemical therapies and phytotherapy, we have a large number of essences that are presented both in the master formula and in their perfume among which we emphasize Santalum which helps one to connect with the most sincere interior of oneself, favoring self-esteem, humility, and eliminating negativity in any of its forms. The Butcher's Broom, or Escoba de Carnicero favors inner commitment with oneself and all aspects of our life. The Birth Star, also known as the Goddess Tara Verde in vibrational therapies, is used for those who don't materialize their dreams or their projects and are always in the world of ideas without finding time to act. It serves as a beacon to find the meaning of life and our most profound mission.

Just as moonlight is a mirror of sunlight, physical beauty is really the reflection of the soul's beauty.

Integral Balance Suncare

The sun is a powerful ally, a source of energy, health, and beauty which we can fully enjoy if we relate to it with responsibility and adequate protection.

The Sun, Our Dangerous Ally

The sun is indispensable for life and therefore for all organisms. It constitutes the main source of vitamin D and its absence can generate osteoporosis, asthma, heart problems, cholesterol, allergies, and depression. Sun bathing reduces blood pressure and respiratory infections and increases immune and muscular response.

The sun offers many benefits, however excessive sun exposure carries many risks. Some of the risks include erythema, burns, cataracts, ocular disorders, premature aging of the skin, inhibition of the immune system, skin cancer, and other cutaneous disorders.

Nowadays, it's essential to use sunscreen with SPF - Filters that protect us from the harmful effects of ultraviolet radiation.

UVA rays: Penetrates deeply. They accelerate skin aging and damage collagen and elastin which is a process that is carcinogenic.

UVB rays: Only penetrates as deep as the epidermis. They are very dangerous because they alter the structure of cells, diminish immune capacity, and propitiate the formation of free radicals. They are cumulative, so that skin which burns repeatedly during youth has a higher risk of generating cancer even if it has been protected throughout its life.

What SPF actually measures is the ability to delay sunburn. The higher the SPF, the longer we are protected. The difference between a factor of 5 and 25 is large but the difference between 30 and 50 is very little.

In the USA and Canada, SPF over 30 is banned to prevent consumers from being overconfident by thinking that one single application prevents solar damage. They believe that these messages lead to important misunderstandings.

Emocosmética Sun Protection Face and Body Creams have physical and biological filters separating from traditional chemical factors (without nanoparticles) that are detrimental to the health of our skin. These filters are responsible for reflecting and dispersing solar radiation (UVA, UVB, visible, and infrared light) acting immediately upon application.

The vegetal assets of other formulas in addition to protecting have regenerative results of unquestionable value. They moisturize, provide the skin with antioxidants, and provide many vitamins that help counteract the detrimental effect of free radicals.

Emocosmética's facial and body creams are water-resistant so we recommend reapplying after bathing to ensure seamless protection.

After sun exposure, Emocosmética recommends using balsams and soaps that help to regenerate, hydrate, and tone the skin.

Before Solar Exposure

Anti-Cellulite Body Cream with Bodyfit™

A reducer and tensor of the skin which acts on fat deposits generating an immediate long duration effect while simultaneously favoring the drainage of excess liquids.

PRINCIPAL ACTIVE INGREDIENTS

Bodyfit™, Guarana, Caffeine, Ruscus, Asian Centella, Horsetail, Fucus Algae, Ivy, Alcachofera, Horse Chestnut, Collagen, Carnitine, Essential Oil of Mint, Grapefruit and Lemon, Phytosqualene, Vitamins E and C, Betasitosterols, Gluconolactone, and Gluconolactone Calcium.

Cellulite is one of the aesthetic problems that most concern men and women in an age in which sedentary lifestyle, poor diet and lifestyle habits are significantly increasing the proliferation of this problem. For this reason, developers at Emocosmética are trying to discover new ingredients that are truly effective at solving this pathology.

One of the newest and most powerful ingredients in our Excellence Anti-Cellulite Body Cream with Bodyfit™. It is a preparation containing the glaucine molecule as a main active ingredient. This means that glaucine is capable of promoting the reversal of adipose tissue, to a tissue with fibroblastic characteristics. Thus, it visibly reduces the appearance of an orange peel, making it recover its lost firmness.

According to clinical studies the Bodyfit active ingredient of Anti-Cellulite Body Cream, in just one week of use, not only stimulates the removal of fat but inhibits the appearance of new cellulite nodules, through the regulation of calcium flux. It improves the removal of liquids and water distribution in tissues, in addition to restoring skin firmness and which enhances the reversal of cellulite tissue in firmer tissue.

There are a total of 20 Principal Active Ingredients of the highest quality, among which are:

Guarana: it works in the central nervous system, causing a higher adrenaline production. It speeds up all the chemical process, including metabolism, it relieves the accumulated fat burning and it raises the cells basal metabolisms. It also has an effect on the mood, restoring your energy and gaining resistance capacity.

Horsetail: It improves the skin elasticity, working in the blood vessels fibres to strengthen them and to help blood circulation. It raises the number of leukocytes, which means it has an Antirheumatic effect. It is perfect to speed up the tendinitis and muscular problems recover.

Ruscus: remarkable anti-inflammatories and vasoconstrictor qualities. According to the Council of Europe, it owns these cosmetology characteristics: invigorating, refreshing, anti-irritant, astringent, vasoprotective, antiphlogistic and antiexudative.

Caffeine: is a natural substance which has detoxifying and diuretic properties. It helps legs blood circulation and prevents the appearance of varicose veins. Caffeine, due to its topical use, takes action directly on the fat nodules, stimulating the enzyme responsible of degrading and breaking body fat.

Asian Centella: In 1852, Dr Boileau, who had leprosy, tested its scientific evidence after being recovered with its use. This event provoked numerous studies in Asia and Europe. The World Health Organisation (WHO) indicates its use in: wounds, burns, and ulcer skin diseases like leprosy, smallpox or syphilis as it speeds healing up and it prevents from keloids and hypertrophic scars.

Ivy: It reduces the pain caused by cellulitis; it reduces the swelling and softens those zones with nodes and plaques. At the same time it is used against fissures, wounds or even insects bites because of its powerful regenerative action.

Fucus: is a seaweed that improves the degradation of fat tissue, stimulates the blood circulation and gets rid of the retained liquids. Due to its high levels of iodine, it triggers the Lipolysis of the fat accumulated in the adipocytes. It tones, moisturises and softens the skins as well as it has important antioxidant properties.

Grapefruit: It has antiseptic, diuretic, purgative, and lymphatic system stimulating properties. It nourishes the cells, providing beneficial effects on obesity and fluid retention.

And so on up to twenty active ingredients, which are a real treasure for body care and the care of our skin.

A calm person who exudes harmony and tranquility becomes a powerful magnet for everything beautiful in existence.

Tranquility and Calm

Baltic Bars: These are clays, muds, and medicinal marine muds. They are remnants of various kinds of algae, silicates, carbonates, sulphates, halides (Gema salt, fluorite), sulphides, sulfosalts, minerals, trace elements, and up to 250 and more components dating back to the marine peloids from the Baltic area. They are ideal for recalibrating, detoxifying, nourishing, and strengthening the immune system.

Baltic Sapropel: This is an anoxic sedimentation made up of organic and inorganic sedimentation from the seafloor created over long periods of time. They have incalculable healing properties and can powerfully penetrate the human body.

Sea salts: Considered medicinal, Baltic sea salts, due to their high content of nutrients and peloids that convert them into a healing jewel, detoxify and purify organisms.

Baltic Amber: The Baltic area is the site of the largest known amber deposit (80% of the world's amber). It contains a very high content of succinic acid, iodine, camphor, and electro-magnetic elements. It activates circulation, improves immunity and pH balance, stimulates the thyroid, heart, nervous system, and kidneys.

Grey Amber: Grey Amber is a bile secretion that is secreted by some sperm whales and is floating in the waters like a strange natural treasure. Enormous fossilized quantities have been found in the deep sea graves of the Baltic. Its main uses have been medicinal and cosmetic.

Anomaly of the Baltic: This is known as a formation of approximately sixty meters in diameter detected at the bottom of the Baltic Sea. In 2011, the Ocean X Team diving company which is dedicated to hunting treasures and relics under the sea detected a "form of 60 meters in diameter and 87 meters in depth" unusual presence at the bottom of the Baltic Sea.

The difficulty in studying this anomaly comes from a constant failure of electronic and computer equipment that attempted to take pictures and study it and a lack of coherence regarding their form and possible composition. Many hypotheses have been proposed that ranged from considering it to be the remains of the lost city of Antarctica such as possible structures created by undiscovered civilizations, secret platforms of some intelligence agency, millenary formations, geological remains of glaciers, archeological sites, etc...

Since its discovery, there have been hundreds of disparate theories that do not stop being formulated, accepted, and being unproven. Meanwhile, the mystery continues as the enigma increases. A popular belief that is being widely spread throughout the area is that the sick have begun to journey to the waters of the Baltic where the strange object resides and they continue to accumulate surprising declarations and apparent sudden healings.

Magic Essences Emotional Catalyst

(Project the Magic Within) There are magical places. Places where civilizations intertwine, where time stands still. There are magical moments, when you know life is smiling back at you. There are magical people, able to make of the ordinary things, something extraordinary. They try to behave like the others and so, they are hard to find. But when you find them, there is not turn back, you cannot lose their legacy. It is said Magic is so strong that if it touch you once, it always will.

Magic exist, either you believe in it or not. It is an innate power we all have. It is like an imaginary switch that sometimes we turn on in a dark room, and the light comes. But not to find it, not to know it, it does not mean it does not exist. It is in you, it depends on you to turn on your light, will you dare?

Eliminate toxins and dead skin cells, achieve healthier and prettier skin that is able to protect itself in a natural way against fungi, bacteria and other external agents that may damage it.

Thanks to expert hands and the right cosmetics, we've managed to eliminate and prevent problems such as muscular knots caused by bad postures, sudden movements, overloads or stress.

A relaxing massage improves blood circulation throughout the body. As a result, there is an increase in the supply of oxygen to tissues, benefiting nutrition, hydration, health and an overall state of well-being. This, in turn, favors a uniform, beautiful and long lasting tan in summer.

Promotes slow and deep breathing; which, rhythmic to those expert hands who seek our integral benefit, comfort us and provide us with high self-esteem and inner calmness.

This product regenerates tissues, eliminating adipose cells and fat accumulations. It helps us to beautify the appearance of the skin and shape our figure.

This product activates our lymphatic system, which is responsible for eliminating toxins and other contaminants from our body, reinforcing the immune system.

Healthy Environment Generators

The adaptation of a room makes the space become regenerative. To do this, the therapist as dictated by the ancient Tibetan treaties or ayurvedic medicine, has a number of elements to balance and assist in the healing process to those who inhabit it. Chromotherapy, therapy, or aromatherapy are fundamental elements in this process.

For the treatment, nothing is better than a pleasant temperature and regenerative lighting that accompanies in the process to the individual along with suitable music that helps with its vibration to organic balance and aromatherapy which generates the state of consciousness that we want from that treatment.

It will become a rebalancing and curative process from Emocosmética. We offer you the music of brainwaves and emotional catalysts in burner and with pulverizer.

Music Therapy · Brain Waves

These recordings have been developed integrating the use of specific brainwaves that provide numerous benefits at the physiological, mental, and emotional level along with different music chosen for the same purpose.

The dominant frequency determines our states of mind, our mental performance, and our overall health. If we manage to train the mind to adapt to and balance the general brain waves at every moment in our daily activity, we will feel that our brain greatly optimizes functioning becoming the best ally to achieve an ideal state of wellbeing and happiness.

Emotional Catalysts

The effectiveness of aromatherapy is due to its penetration into our own body through invisible particles that project essential oils through the nostrils thus producing a certain effect through the cells and nervous system according to the essence or group of essences mixed for this purpose.

Our Emotional Catalysts are created with more than a dozen aromatic essences and phytotherapy gems so you can attire your home, work center, and meetings with emotions that will intoxicate you and help you balance yourself in an active, constructive and harmonious way in connection to the welfare you deserve.
